Take Me to Where I Might Go

Music by Markus Zosel

Take me to where I might go to
Take me to what I might see.
Tell me over and over
Everywhere that we might be.

Leave me a sign to find you.
Leave me a notion to grow.
Tell me over and over
All the things I got to know.

There's a road we all see
On this place it's got to be
That we keep on going to come home.
Just go on as you are
Though you are on your own
No one will be left alone.

Show me a song to sing to
Along the wonders of life.
Tell me the words that belong to
All the joy and all the strife.

There's a road we all see
On this place it's got to be
That we keep on going to come home.
Just go on as you are
Though you are on your own
No one will be left alone.

Take me to where I might go to
Take me to what I might see.
Tell me over and over
Everywhere that we might be.

Leave me a sign to find you.
Leave me a notion to grow.
Tell me over and over
All the things I got to know.

Who Does Care?

Words & music by Markus Zosel

Who would care
If I went some otherwhere?
Who would try to share
A common thought right there?

Who would try to see
If I failed in being free?
How would I know
If there was someone to show?

Like a river running free
You might take a look at me.
It would be stunning for a while
Until you'd wish to leave wish to leave.

And me I went along
Just as I have always done
And I'd just go my way
With just no chance to stay.

Who would care
If I went some otherwhere?
Who would try to share
A common thought right there?

Who would try to see
If I failed in being free?
How would I know
If there was someone to show?

Like a garden that's grown wild
No one watched out for to find
The beauty lying within
For it's gone but once had been

In the sound of trembling leaves
In the sunlight through the trees.
With little effort it all could be
Just as it used to be.

Who would care
If I went some otherwhere?
Who would try to share
A common thought right there?

Who would try to see
If I failed in being free?
How would I know
If there was someone to show?

It's Been Bright Over Here

Words & music by Markus Zosel

All my friends they tell me
To let you in my heart
They've told me from the start.

Yes, you're looking beautiful
But, still, deep inside
I'm afraid you'll break my heart.

But it's been bright over here,
Bright over here.
I tell you just in case
You'd like to know.

Yes, it's been bright over here,
Bright over here.

But there are things
From you I'd like to know.

You might call me a loner
A sympathetic fool
Who doesn't like to play
The world by rule.

You might call me a wanderer
Who always needs to move
No matter what to gain
Or what to lose.

But it's been bright over here,
Bright over here.
I tell you just in case
You'd like to know.

Yes, it's been bright over here,
Bright over here.
But there are things
From you I'd like to know.

All my friends they tell me
To let you in my heart
They've told me from the start.

Yes, you're looking beautiful
But, still, deep inside
I'm afraid you'll break my heart.

But it's been bright over here,
Bright over here.
I tell you just in case
You'd like to know.

Yes, it's been bright over here,
Bright over here.
But there are things
From you I'd like to know.

I Came For You

Words & music by Markus Zosel

Lost in such a strange construct
I been able, I been stuck.
Somehow wordless
Or just trying to break free.

Trying in the easy way
Nothing else I got to say
All about the
Reason and the rhyme.

I came for you.

Did you come for me?
Did you try to see
What happened all the way
After we broke?

I came for you.

A Lovely Ride

Words & music by Markus Zosel

Oh, what a lovely ride.
Oh, what a day.
A soft caressing wind beside
All the words that you said.
And you came with the morning light
And all it felt so right.

Tell me the reasons for going on.
Tell me the reasons to stay.
Could that be reason for both of us
To share more of the way.
Have you ever been there before?
Are you willing to see some more?

Lalala...

Life can be something you build yourself
Thought it can be rough.
But it's not rain but the sun's delight
I been thinking of.
Let's try to find that way
For I'd love to see you stay.

Lalala...

Oh, what a lovely ride.
Oh, what a day.
A soft caressing wind beside
All the words that you said.

And you came with the morning light
And all it felt so right.

Tell me the reasons for going on.
Tell me the reasons to stay.
Could that be reason for both of us
To share more of the way.
Have you ever been there before?
Are you willing to see some more?

Every Way but This

Words & music by Markus Zosel

As I put down these words
Yes, you are on my mind
Same as the dreams
That we kept deep inside.
When we tried to share
In so many ways we cared
And a cloud rose in the sky.

Every way but this
Don't leave me without a word.
You've grown so cold
And maybe you're hurt
Don't you leave me just like this.
Every way but this.

I might not be
The perfect one for you
But Lord knows I tried
And I have been true.
I tried all the ways
I was able to see
But I just set you free.

Every way but this
Don't leave me without a word.
You've grown so cold
And maybe you're hurt.
Don't you leave me just like this.
Every way but this.

*Just a fool in love
Who believes in love?
In honest love
When it hurts that bad....?*

Every way but this
Don't leave me without a word.
You've grown so cold
And maybe you're hurt.
Don't you leave me just like this.
Every way but this.

Magnolia Morning

Words & music by Markus Zosel

Magnolia morning
On a Sunday in May.
With blossoms white blooming
In a distant world away.
I thought that I felt and other way.
It leaves me stunned
Without a word to say.

Magnolia sunshine
I been there before.
I'm grateful to wander
To stumble and fall.
All that it takes is the first step that you take.
It begins right then without any word to say.

Magnolia starlight
I'm flying away.
If you want to be with me,
Please, just stay.
The light it shines before us every day
And fills all darkness bright on our way.

Magnolia dreamland
I'm falling for you.
Whatever they told me
It all had been true.
Whatever you give, give it with love by heart.
Whatever you give, it is yours deep in your heart.

To Some Distant World Afar

Words & music by Markus Zosel

You gotta see my friend
Every race runs to an end
Or are we taking it further on?

We gotta make it right
And all so deep inside
There's a feeling to tell us who we are.

You gotta see my friend
You need to understand
It's like you hold on
To a song unsung.

And everywhere we go
I guess, we gotta know
That's something that
Makes us going on.

We gotta make believe
We all need to receive
A little bit of heaven in our eyes.

This night might be so dark
But even a single spark
Has all the power to light a fire.

You're looking all so right
Tonight the moonlight seems
To shine right out of your eyes.

I long to lay beside
The one I missed all life
To make this moonlight dream come true.

But here you gotta know
So much that I can't show
To someone far away from here.
You got just make believe
Something to receive
From ways of wonder we are bound to see.

We gotta make believe
We all need to receive
A little bit of heaven in our eyes.

This night might be so dark
But even a single spark
Has all the power to light a fire.

You gotta see my friend
You need to understand
It's like you hold on
To a song unsung.

And everywhere we go
I guess, we gotta know
That's something that
Makes us going on.

We gotta make believe
We all need to receive
A little bit of heaven in our eyes.

This night might be so dark
But even a single spark
Has all the power to light a fire.

Go On!

Words & music by Markus Zosel

Go on, go on,
Go on just don't hesitate.
Go on, stay strong,
Go on, because the world does wait
For someone who does it just like you.
Straight from the heart and true.

Dream on, dream on,
Dream on don't you ever stop.
Dream on, just dream on
Sometimes these dreams are all you've got
To make it through a rainy day.
When friends do vanish dreams may stay.

And there's a fighter deep inside
And there's no need for you to hide it away.

Be sure, be sure,
Being yourself it'll take you through.
You'll win and you'll lose
But in the end what remains is you.
Don't be afraid to take each step.
Don't spent too much time with looking back.

Go on, go on,
Go on just don't hesitate.
Go on, stay strong,
Go on, because the world does wait
For someone who does it just like you.
Straight from the heart and true.
So true, just true...
